Re: Gay Alliance v. City Assessor

Dear Kate:

It was good to talk with you last week, and wonderful to hear that Lambda and the ACLU are planning to file a joint amicus brief in the appeal of this action.

As we discussed, I have enclosed:

1. Defendant's Affirmation in Opposition to Motion to Amend Complaint (February 11, 1993)

2. Plaintiff's Letter Reply to Defendant's Opposition (February 17, 1993)

3. Judge Siracuse's Memorandum and Order on plaintiff's Motion to amend the complaint to assert that the constitutional claims arise under 42 USC §1983 (February 26, 1993)

4. Defendant's first Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment (November 12, 1992)

5. Defendant's Memorandum of Law in support of first Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment (November 12, 1992)

6. Defendant's second Cross-Motion for Summary Judgment (April 2, 1993) (no supporting brief was filed)

You indicated that you already had plaintiff's Summary Judgment papers and two supporting briefs that were filed.

Please make copies of these papers and pass them along to your colleagues in the ACLU. They might find the §1983 materials particularly helpful because they are doing that section of the brief.

Again, thanks for all your support and help. I will let you know as soon as the defendant files anything.

Very truly yours,

Ellen M. Yacknin
